

JOSH AND JANELLE

Hello

We are incredibly honored that you are considering us as a potential family for your child. We understand that this is a deeply personal and difficult decision, and we want you to know that our hearts are filled with love and hope for your child and for you. We are praying for you and your child. We are a family eager to provide a safe, loving, and nurturing environment for a child to thrive in. We are committed to respecting your journey, and we hope you will feel comfortable and supported if we move forward together. We are genuinely excited about the possibility of welcoming your child into our lives. We would be happy to answer any questions you may have and will support you in any way we can. Thank you for considering us, and we wish you God's love and peace as you navigate this decision.

With love and respect,

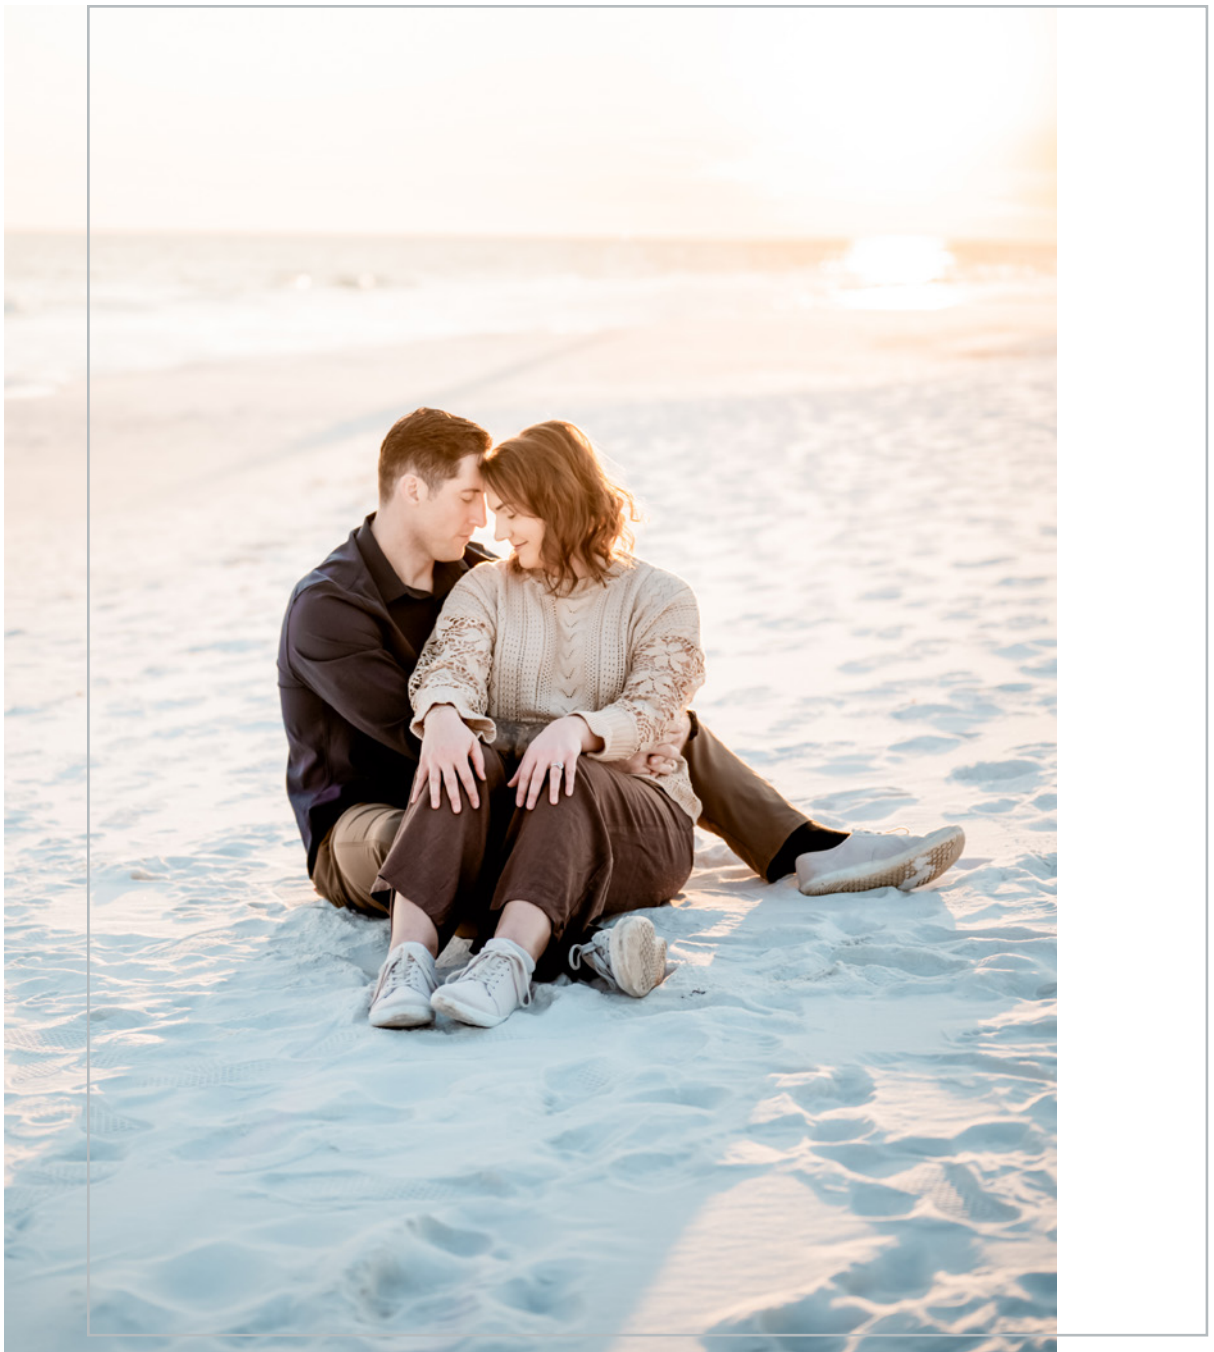

Josh and Janelle

All about us

My best friend Moleigh introduced Josh and me in 2011. At the time, Moleigh and Josh worked at an adult daycare center providing recreational therapy services. After messaging for a few days, we planned our first date (the museum, dinner, and a movie). We've been together ever since.

We have been married for 11 years, and our relationship has grown and changed. Over the years, we have moved across the country, living in five states. In addition, we have traveled internationally and had many unique experiences we never could have imagined. During that time, Josh also entered the military, which was a significant change but has brought us close to many friends we now consider family. Our relationship has grown deeper and stronger through these many changes, and we have chosen to place our faith in God to continue directing our lives. We are thankful for the experiences we've had together and are excited about what lies ahead.

Why adopt?

We knew we wanted to have a family before we were married. We attempted to start our family biologically and quickly learned we would need to try IVF to have a chance at a biological pregnancy. We did two rounds of IVF and had two failed embryo transfers. Throughout this time, we considered whether this was how God was calling us to grow our family and started discussing adoption. After much thought and prayer, we feel called to expand our family through adoption. We believe adoption is a beautiful way to demonstrate God's love.

JOSH | BY JANELLE

Josh is the biggest blessing in my life. He has helped me grow emotionally, physically, mentally, and spiritually. Without him, I would not be the woman I am today. His patience and compassion have guided us through difficult times, and he has led our relationship to become healthier and deeper through the process. I can always depend on him to do the right thing and handle any situation with a strong desire to be like Jesus.

I know he will be a great dad because of his ability to lead from a place of love.

Josh is a kid at heart. He enjoys playing with kids whenever he's around them. He finds a way to bring fun to a family get-together, birthday party, or when someone is feeling down. He enjoys meeting them on their level and engaging them in their chosen activity. He loves teaching and helping wherever he can. Josh values the importance of being a strong, dependable, caring, compassionate father figure and will be a loving, hands-on dad.

JANELLE | BY JOSH

Janelle has been the biggest inspiration in my life. I would never have imagined being blessed to have met someone so kind, caring, and loving. She blesses me every day with her love, wisdom, and presence. She is my best friend and the strongest person I know.

She has a heart for giving and truly has the utmost passion to be a great mother. I know she will be an amazing mom because she is already an incredible wife.

Janelle loves to make children laugh and feel loved. She enjoys fostering humor, playing games, reading to/with children, and taking them on outings. She likes helping them learn and discover the world around them and enjoys their natural curiosity. She values the role of nurturer in assisting children to grow and discover their individual selves.

Welcome to our home

Our recently renovated home has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and an attached two-car garage. Our backyard is enclosed with a privacy fence. We are thankful to live in a quiet neighborhood located ten minutes from the beach.

We live in a good school district (our friend's children also attend there). There are many different ethnicities represented in our neighborhood and community. As a part of the military, people from all over the country are nearby. We have access to pools, playgrounds, the beach, and many other amenities, including the zoo and aquarium.

In our home we:

Seek God First

Communicate with love

Strive to be a team

Our Families

Our families are supportive of our adoption journey. Since we are in the military, we don't live close to them currently but enjoy strong relationships with them all. Josh is an only child, and I have two brothers, a sister-in-law, and three nieces. They're very excited about us adopting. Adoption isn't new to our family, as I have two cousins who have adopted.

We enjoy sharing holidays with our friends and family when possible, celebrating over food and conversation. We attend Christmas Eve church service and read Jesus' birth story on Christmas.

We love to travel, hike and snowshoe, take trips to the beach, and attend church.

Thinking ahead

Growing our family is the most important personal goal we have. Professionally, Josh plans to become an officer in the military, and I plan on furthering my medical career once our children are school-age. In the meantime, I will be a stay-at-home mother. As parents, we plan to raise our children with a strong Christian foundation rooted in Christ's love. We will also support their education goals as Josh has begun transferring his education benefits so they can attend college. We are most excited to be a family and have fun while loving each other.

“Josh will be an excellent father because he continually seeks to grow in his faith and well-being so that he can help those around him.”

“Janelle is the guiding light in my life, and I know she will be an amazing mother. She has a heart that never stops loving and is the most beautiful soul I’ve ever met.”

Before You Go

Thank you again for taking the time to consider our family for your child. We can only imagine the strength and love it takes to make this decision, and we want you to know we are praying for you—for peace, guidance, and God's presence to surround you every step of the way. If you choose us to adopt your child, we promise to provide a home filled with unconditional love, faith, and the teachings of Jesus Christ. Your child will grow up knowing they are a precious gift from God, fearfully and wonderfully made. They will know they are deeply loved — not only by us but also by you and, most importantly, by our Lord. We hope to get to know you and hear your heart and your hopes for your child's future. No matter what, please know we respect you, admire your courage, and trust that God has a beautiful plan for you and your child.
