

Kevin and Matt

Hi!

We are Kevin & Matt

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR TAKING THE TIME TO GET TO KNOW US.

We're incredibly honored to be considered as potential parents.

We live in Chattanooga Tennessee, in a warm, welcoming community surrounded by nature, where we enjoy spending time outdoors, relaxing at home, and building meaningful traditions. Adoption has been in our hearts for a long time, and we're excited and ready to welcome a child into our lives with unconditional love and care.

As parents, we dream of providing a home filled with warmth, laughter, and stability. We look forward to all the little moments—bedtime stories, weekend adventures, holidays filled with joy, and everyday routines that make childhood special. More than anything, we want to raise a child who knows they are deeply loved, supported, and safe. Thank you again for considering us—it means more than words can express, and we're truly grateful for this opportunity to share a bit of our hearts with you.

OUR love STORY

began in the modern way....on Tinder! We matched, chatted for hours, and decided to meet up for our first date at the zoo. From the start, we bonded over our shared sense of humor and love for the outdoors. Not long after we met, Matt left for basic training, and during that time apart, we wrote each other heartfelt love letters, something we still treasure to this day.

ALL DRESSED UP WITH SOMEWHERE FABULOUS TO GO

We love camping, road trips, and quiet mornings (although we will gladly give those up for a little one), adventures we can't wait to share with a child.

About Kevin

BY MATT

KEVIN IS ENERGETIC, CREATIVE, and
INCREDIBLY COMPASSIONATE.

KEVIN LOVES CHEER!

One of the things I admire most about him is how easily he connects with people, especially children.

He has an innate ability to make kids feel comfortable and valued, whether he's helping them with something or simply listening to their stories. His enthusiasm for life is contagious, and he's always ready to inspire others — especially when it comes to coaching or guiding kids in sports or new activities. Kevin's love for cheer and gymnastics is something he's excited to pass down. His experience as a cheerleader and coach gives him a deep appreciation for teamwork, discipline, and fun, all qualities he's eager to bring into his role as a parent.

In his free time, Kevin enjoys staying active and listening to music, often blending the two by practicing cheer stunts or simply jamming out to his favorite songs. Whether it's a laid-back day with a good playlist or trying something new outside, Kevin's energy and positive attitude make everything feel like an adventure. He's excited to share his passion for movement, music, and creativity with a child as they grow together.

HONEYMOON IN HAWAII

One of his best qualities is his ability to make those around him feel at ease.

He's the type of person who finds joy in the simple moments, whether it's watching a sunset after a hike or cooking a meal together on a quiet evening. He brings this calm and steady energy to everything he does, especially when it comes to children. Matt has a natural way with kids – whether he's patiently answering their curious questions or encouraging their sense of wonder, he's always present, calm, and kind.

In his leisure time, Matt enjoys outdoor activities like hiking, camping, and snowboarding. He's the first to suggest a weekend trip to the mountains or a quiet camping trip. His love for the natural world is something he's eager to share with a child, and he's excited to show them the beauty of nature while fostering a love for exploration.
