

Rebecca & Geoffrey

There are no words to fully express the admiration and respect we feel for you.

We can only imagine there may be many emotions that come with looking through pictures and words from people you've just met. If you choose us to be adoptive parents for your baby we promise your love will always be part of their story. They will grow up knowing that their life began with your selfless and profound act of love. We promise to give them a life full of joy, laughter, kindness, and opportunity to discover who they are meant to be. We hope that as you read our story, you see the love in our home and the excitement in our hearts as we prepare to welcome a child.

WITH HEARTFELT GRATITUDE,

Rebecca and Geoffrey

Why We Are Adopting

While we were dating, we had many honest conversations about our future and knew we both wanted children. When we realized we were unable to conceive, we turned to prayer, reflection, and many heartfelt talks. Through that journey, we came to know adoption was how we were meant to grow our family. It wasn't a backup plan—it became our plan, one we feel peace and excitement about. Another reason we have adoption on our hearts is because Rebecca's grandmother was adopted, and her journey has shown us the beauty and significance of chosen families.

WE MET THE WAY MANY COUPLES DO
THESE DAYS—ONLINE!

From the very beginning, there was an instant connection between us. Early on, we had a moment that still makes us smile. One night after a date, Geoffrey realized he had lost his keys. Instead of getting frustrated, we turned it into a team effort. We retraced our steps, checked under tables, and walked the same paths again. We never did find the keys that night, but we found something even more important—we realized how well we worked together, always with fun and laughter mixed in. That was the moment we knew we make a great team.

Our Story

Over the next two years, we built a life filled with simple joys of hiking local trails, grabbing ice cream, and traveling to new cities. In December 2025, Geoffrey proposed, and just four months later, on April 12, 2025, we were married, so excited to begin the next chapter of our life together.

I HAVE ALWAYS HAD A ZEST FOR LIFE.

I love meeting new people and trying new things—just this past year, I even learned how to play Mahjong! I’ve always enjoyed taking care of myself through health and nutrition, and that passion led me to major in nutrition in college and become a registered dietitian. I currently work in an outpatient dialysis setting, where I have the privilege of helping my patients feel their very best. I truly enjoy cooking and creating healthy recipes, and I already look forward to the day I get to make homemade baby food for our little one.

When our baby arrives, I plan to become a stay-at-home mom—a role I’ve prayed for and am so excited to step into. I also work part-time at a fun boutique where I help customers pick out special gifts and wrap them beautifully—I call it my “fun job”! My friends describe me as optimistic, bubbly, and caring.

More About Rebecca

WRITTEN BY GEOFFREY

From the very beginning, I was drawn to Rebecca's bubbly personality and bright smile. She brings a sense of joy and adventure into my life in the best way. I remember once having a work trip to Chicago and planning to drive because it felt easier and more familiar. Rebecca just smiled and said, "No, we're flying." I had never been on a plane before, but she encouraged me, booked the tickets, and reassured me the whole way. Before I knew it, we were headed to the airport. That first flight happened because of her. She gently pushes me outside my comfort zone and helps me experience more of the world, and I'm so grateful she does.

REBECCA IS TRULY THE HEART OF OUR HOME.

She keeps everything running smoothly—managing our household, cooking delicious meals, staying organized, and even scheduling my appointments. More than anything, she creates a home that feels warm, steady, and full of love.

Hi! I'm Geoffrey

IN MY ELEMENT, TRIMMING
ROSES AND TURNING OUR YARD INTO SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL

I've always had a passion for history and a strong memory for details, which fits naturally with my work as an attorney. Although my job can be demanding, it offers flexibility, allowing me to work from home several days a week. When a baby joins our family, I plan to take time off and be fully present, because family has always been my top priority. My friends describe me as hardworking, service-minded, and always looking out for those less fortunate.

As a proud University of Georgia graduate, I'm a devoted Bulldogs fan and can't wait to add a new little Bulldog to our fan base. Since we bought our home, I've discovered a new hobby in landscaping and take pride in keeping our yard looking its best. And if there's one place that truly feels like my happy place, it's the beach—so we make it a point to visit several times each year.

More About Geoffrey

WRITTEN BY REBECCA

Geoffrey has a way of keeping life lighthearted—he makes me laugh every single day. He is a dedicated, hard worker and a wonderful provider, but what stands out most is his protective and caring heart.

HE IS ALWAYS LOOKING OUT FOR THE SAFETY AND WELL-BEING OF THE PEOPLE HE LOVES, AND I HAVE NO DOUBT HE WILL CARRY THAT SAME DEVOTION INTO FATHERHOOD.

I saw this so clearly on a recent family beach trip when our sixteen-year-old nephew, Tanner, ventured a little too far into the ocean. Without hesitation, Geoffrey headed straight toward him. Calm and steady, he used his signature “special talk”—a mix of reassurance and a little good-natured bargaining—until Tanner slowly made his way back to shore. It was such a simple moment, but it perfectly captured who Geoffrey is: someone who steps in quietly and confidently, always making sure the people he loves are safe.

We're close to Red Top Mountain and the Etowah Trail, and we love taking walks together. Our neighborhood is very child-friendly, with sidewalks, cul-de-sacs where kids play, and wonderful amenities like a pool with a water slide, playground, and tennis and pickleball courts. Halloween is a favorite here—our street fills with families, and we can't wait to dress up our child and join in the fun. Our two-story home backs up to a wooded area where we often see deer and other wildlife. We have a fenced backyard with plenty of space to play. Inside, our open main floor is perfect for hosting and everyday family life, and upstairs we have a cozy space we look forward to filling with books, games, and laughter. We truly love having nature at our doorstep while being just a short drive from all that Atlanta offers. The local elementary school is top-rated, and we look forward to having our child go to school and having their neighbors as good friends.

WE LOVE A LITTLE FRIENDLY COMPETITION!

EVERYDAY ADVENTURES

We love spending time outdoors and exploring our city together. You'll find us on a walk almost every evening, and on Saturday mornings we enjoy taking a longer walk, stopping by a new coffee shop or discovering a different neighborhood. We can't wait to have a stroller alongside us and share those little adventures with a child.

COMMUNITY & CONNECTION

We also love being part of our neighborhood community. We play chess with a sweet couple nearby, compete in trivia downtown on Thursday nights, and recently joined a neighborhood pickleball league that has been so much fun. Geoffrey enjoys working in the yard and tending to his roses, while Rebecca loves meeting friends for lunch, shopping, and playing Mahjong.

FAMILY & FAITH

Most importantly, we cherish time with family and friends. Every Sunday morning, we attend church, and we feel so grateful for the strong church community around us. We truly cannot wait for our child to grow up surrounded by that same love, faith, and connection.

Our Loved Ones

Rebecca comes from a close-knit family who talk daily and spend lots of time together. Her parents have been happily married for over 40 years, and their strong, loving relationship is an inspiration to us. They are recently retired, building a new home that backs up to a beautiful waterfall, which we know will become a special gathering place for holidays and family memories. They are already wonderful grandparents who will likely spoil our future child just a little! Rebecca is the middle of three sisters. Her older sister, Kelly, is married to Mark, and they have two children, Tanner (18) and Alexis (12), who we lovingly call Rebecca's "mini me." Her younger sister, Elizabeth, lives nearby with her husband, Andrew, making it easy to spend time together often. She is also very close with her Aunt Vicki, who has always been like a second mom to her.

Geoffrey's family is small and incredibly close. His parents shared a beautiful 40-year marriage. Although his mom passed away in 2021, her Polish heritage and cherished recipes remain an important part of our traditions. His dad, Gene, and older brother, Eugene, live nearby, and we enjoy getting together for dinners. This will be the first grandchild on Geoffrey's side of the family, and they could not be more excited.

OUR ANNUAL BEACH TRIP TO ST. GEORGE ISLAND WITH REBECCA'S FAMILY

Family Vacations

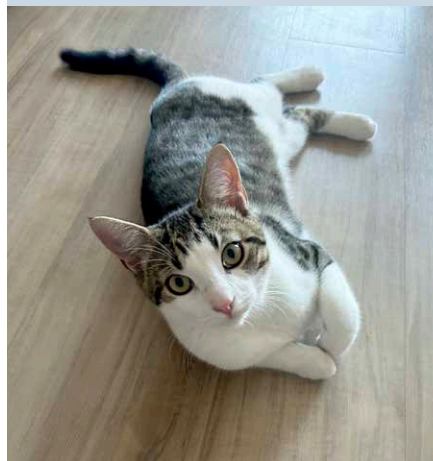

Each year, Rebecca's family heads to St. George Island, a place woven deeply into their family story. Her mom began going there as a child, and that tradition has carried on through generations—sunrise walks on the beach, sandy toes, card games around the table, and laughter that carries late into the evening. It's a week we look forward to all year. We can already picture bringing our future child along—building sandcastles, hunting for seashells, and creating the next chapter of sweet family memories by the water.

Our Pets

Georgia is our sweet mini goldendoodle who brings so much energy and joy to our home. She loves daily walks, playing in our fenced yard, and cuddling close she's truly our little "velcro dog." We can't wait for her to have a little playmate one day. Kirby is our friendly indoor cat, whom we brought home just one day after Georgia. As big Georgia Bulldog fans, we named them after the team and Coach Kirby Smart. Since growing up together, they've become the best of friends, often playing and napping side by side.

Thoughts on Parenting

BIRTHDAYS ARE A BIG DEAL IN OUR FAMILY!

As would be first-time parents,

WE HAVE BEEN VERY INTENTIONAL IN PREPARING FOR THIS SEASON, KNOWING WHAT A TRUE GIFT AND RESPONSIBILITY IT IS.

We are so grateful for the example of our parents and grandparents, who showed us patience, faith, and unconditional love. Rebecca grew up babysitting and volunteering in the church nursery, and Geoffrey loves playing ball and attending T-ball games with our neighbor's three-year-old son. We are also very involved in our niece and nephew's lives — cheering them on from the sidelines at soccer games and playing ping pong and board games together.

THE 4TH OF JULY IS ONE OF OUR FAVORITE HOLIDAYS TO CELEBRATE

We look forward to creating meaningful memories as a family — beach trips, trying new foods, and afternoons spent playing with neighborhood friends. Holidays will be filled with sweet traditions like baking Christmas cookies, celebrating with cousins at their grandparents' house, and playing cornhole on Thanksgiving. Birthdays will always be special too, with a cake and meal of their choice, so they grow up feeling deeply loved and celebrated.

We commit to loving you unconditionally, guiding you from childhood to adulthood, and being there for every event and milestone.

We promise to lift you up when you are down and to celebrate with you for every accomplishment.

We will give you as many adventures, experiences, and fun memories as we possibly can!

We promise to laugh with you and see the world through your eyes.

We cannot wait to experience so many new things with you and to make new traditions and pass on old ones to you.

We will commit to helping you learn and grow into the best person you can be.

We love you so much already - we can't wait to meet you!

Thank you for opening our book. It truly means the world to us!

Regardless of the choice you ultimately make, always remember that it is YOUR decision. Do not feel pressured; trust that you will instinctively know what is best for you and your child. This is one of the most significant decisions and sacrifices you will make, and we do not take that for granted. We hope you feel confident in finding the perfect match for you and your child, as your heart and intuition will guide you in the right direction.

Thank you once more for considering us; your courage in this journey is truly inspiring, and we recognize that wholeheartedly! If we are the couple you choose, we would be thrilled to get to know you better and understand your desires for your child's life so we can help bring them to fruition. Thank you again for taking the time to learn about us, and we hope to learn more about you as well.

LOVE,

Rebecca and Geoffrey
